What should I stop doing

Time is something we don't have enough of. Are we using it wisely and effectively. Does our disciplines, processes, and programs take you closer to your goal?

The purpose of discipline, process, and programs are simply tools to help us achieve the vision.

Re assure people that no one is doing what the seem to be doing on face value. Your negatives are valuable information to growth.

Questions to consider

- What's my vision?
- Your leaders, logos, and logistics need to be tainted with vision
- What's my season?
- Realistically what season is your ministry in and how are you moving from one season to another?
- What's are my results today?
- What are my desired results today?
- What are my desired results in 3 months 6 months 1 year
- Challenge them personally
